

There is nothing worse then being interrupted by a unsolicited phone call. I am paying for this telephone service. I'm not being paid to listen and answer the phone everytime someone wants to sell me something. It's not right. Thanks for your time.